

Are you prepared for the challenges that come with OSHA inspections?

Sep. 20, 2023 | 10:00 to 11:30AM EDT
Effectively Handling an OSHA Inspection Under an Enforcement-Driven OSHA hosted by Edwin G. Foulke Jr., the former Head of OSHA

As we all know, OSHA inspections have become more aggressive than ever under the Biden administration, and the consequences of non-compliance are reaching unprecedented heights. The number of hefty penalties exceeding $100,000 has skyrocketed, and you could be the next target!

In this webinar, you'll dive into the heart of the matter, exploring:

- The Occupational Safety and Health Act (the "Act") and its impact on your facility and business objectives.
- Step-by-step guidance on the entire inspection process, from pre-inspection to appeals before the OSH Review Commission.
- Mastering the art of defining the inspection scope and asserting your legal rights when faced with OSHA's unreasonable demands.
- Essential tips for managers to ensure the best possible outcome during and after an inspection.
- Strategies to handle various types of OSHA inspections, avoiding citations and penalties like a seasoned pro.
- Empowering your managers, supervisors, and employees with knowledge about their legal rights during OSHA interviews.
- Exploring legal options for dealing with OSHA citations when the going gets tough.
